Description:

Romanian citizenship for people born in the Soviet Union.

In addition to Israeli citizenship, your Russian, Ukrainian, Belarusian, you can get a 2/3 passport. Israel supports dual/triple citizenship.

Romanian citizenship can be obtained by those born in any country of the Soviet Union.

The program is completely legal and regulated by Romanian law.

The main advantages of Romanian citizenship:

1. Citizenship for the whole family - Can be obtained for all family members at once.
2. Tax optimization - Having citizenship exempts you from paying taxes on income, gifts, property and inheritance.
3. Choice of place of residence - You can move to any EU country without obtaining additional permission. Get a job, health care services, etc.
4. Citizenship by inheritance - Future children automatically become Romanian citizens.
5. Access to all EU banking services
6. Prestigious education - Children of Romanian citizens have the right to study in any educational institution in the European Union.
7. Visa-free travel around the world - More than 150 countries
8. Favorable business environment - All EU countries

Obtaining Romanian citizenship through the government's repatriation program provides the applicant with full rights available to every citizen of the European Union. With a Romanian passport, additional prospects for settling in Europe open up
